

Manifesto Summary

by AfroManifesto

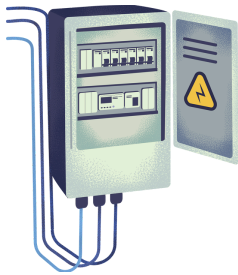

AfroManifesto

Good Party

Electricity

- End loadshedding through the rapid introduction of renewable energy.
- Just transition.

Employment

- Basic Income Grant of R999 as a solution to existing poverty and to support millions of unemployed people.
- Implement an inclusive economic growth plan, education reforms and skills development and targeted government investment in labour intensive sectors.
- Reduce income inequality & Fight for equal pay for equal work.

Good Party Manifesto Summary

International Politics

- Pursue social, economic, spatial and environmental justice in the international sphere.
- Demand a fairer, more inclusive world order that reduces global inequalities, corrects past injustices and pursues peace above all.
- GOOD calls for reform of the United Nations Security Council and the Bretton Woods Institutions – the IMF and World Bank – to enable more representation and influence to the voices of the Global South, and fairer, more inclusive and less monopolised global financial system.
- On the War in Gaza, GOOD calls for an immediate ceasefire and the implementation of the two-state solution.
- GOOD is of the view that the root cause of the conflict is the illegal occupation of Palestinian territory by Israel and the denial by Israel of the rights of Palestinian people to self-determination, statehood and sovereignty.

AfroManifesto

Good Party Manifesto Summary

Education

- Invest in Early Childhood Development and create more ECD centres.
- Bring all school infrastructure up to standard including the eradication of pit toilets.
- Ensure equity in education standards and improve teaching in key subjects
- Provide social services in schools for learners and teachers
- Free tertiary education for those who qualify academically but cannot afford.
- Increase the availability, and standard, of vocational and artisan skills training.

Crime

Addressing crime and building safer communities

- Address the conditions that make crime prevalent in South Africa - poverty and inequality
- Provide psychological support for people who are suffering with substance abuse, mental health and economic distress.

Good Party Manifesto Summary

Crime

- Ensure that law enforcement officers are properly trained, professional, demilitarised and community-centric.
- Support programmes for ex-convicts as they leave prison, or during their years of parole to ensure that they are properly reintegrated into communities, become employable and pursue crime-free lives.
- Address the scar of Gender-Based Violence and Femicide through the societal education of young men.
- Support victims through health and psychological support, providing them with the platform for safe and meaningful reporting of domestic abuse

Corruption

- Establish Anti-Corruption Task Teams. These Task Teams will implement the “detect and prevent corruption” plan and work in partnership with the National Prosecuting Authority, the Hawks, the Financial Intelligence Centre and anti-corruption organisations.
- Implement a fully transparent digital public procurement system.
- We will give more resources to the National Prosecuting Authority and Special Investigating Unit to investigate and prosecute corruption.
- We will protect, incentivise and reward whistleblowers.

